THE CZAR AND A GYPSY.

Fortune Teller's Frank Interpretation of His Majesty's Dream.

The Russian czar is superstitious and gives audience readily to many sorts of charlatans and frauds, says the New York Tribune. An American resident of St. Petersburg wrote home the other day:

"The town is humming with a story of the czar and a gypsy fortune teller. 'The girl is young, pretty and clever. Furthermore, she is frank—outrageously frank. She works on lines that are original and unique. Sometimes, really, she does a great deal of good.'"

"The czar, having heard of her success in St. Petersburg, sent for her the other evening. She appeared before him in the beautiful gypsy dress that leaves bare her amber colored throat and arms."

"I have had," said the emperor, "a singular dream. Will you interpret it for me?"

"Yes, sire," said the gypsy in her deep, clear voice. She smiled. She was quite at her ease.

"I dreamed," said the emperor, "of three rats—a fat rat, a lean rat and a blind rat. This dream troubles me. Has it a meaning?"

"It has," said the gypsy, and she directed on the young man a smile that was both tender and scornful. "The fat rat stands for Russian officialdom—for all your various ministers and departmental heads. The lean rat is your people. The blind rat is yourself."

COMBINATION OF CHURCHES

Movement For All Denominations to Work Together in Kansas.

Rev. Fred Grey, pastor of the Congregational church at Stockton, Kan., has issued an appeal to all the churches in Kansas to join him in the organization of a great religious trust, says a Topeka special dispatch. Mr. Grey calls his new organization the Federation of Churches and Christian Workers of Kansas.

Already a score of prominent ministers representing all denominations have joined in the movement and have declared against creed and denomination and in favor of a broad and liberal Christianity. One of the chief aims is to supply small towns with able ministers and to prevent overlapping in the support of two church organizations when one will answer the purpose.

Rev. Mr. Grey says Kansas will embrace his plan and that the Christian churches of other states will follow.

TRAIN AND TRACK.

Franklin, N. H., has a trackless trolley line.

The Southern Pacific railroad bed is being oiled, 4,000 gallons of oil a mile being used.

The amount of wages and salaries paid to railroad employees in the United States during the year ending June 30, 1903, as reported, was $751,321,415.

The New York Central railroad has increased the number of trains and reduced the fares at such points as it comes in competition with electric lines.

An electric third rail system that is claimed to be safe and trustworthy has been invented by a Chicago man. By means of his device, in which the third rail is inverted and practically hidden from view, the inventor declares it impossible for persons or animals to come in contact with the charged rail.

What's in a Man.

It has been shown by analysis that a young person weighing 154 pounds is composed of 90 pounds of water, 3 pounds of white of egg, a little less than 1 pound of pure glue, 34½ pounds of fat, 8½ pounds of phosphate of lime, 1 pound of carbonate of lime, 3 ounces of sugar and starch, 7 ounces of fluoride of calcium, 6 ounces of phosphate of magnesium and a little ordinary table salt.
